Oracle

WE THE SENIORS OF
RANDOLPH HIGH SCHOOL
PRESENT OUR YEARBOOK,
THE ORACLE

Randolph Massachusetts

It Was A Year Of Transmutation

We, the Seniors of Randolph High School present our yearbook, The Oracle. The Oracle is a chronicle of memories of our Senior year. However, only yesterday, it seems, we were the diminutive freshman in a scary, new world. It was a strange and perplexing world. We had entered a new school; we were introduced into a society where most of the members were older and more sophisticated than we, and we were being governed by different rules. It was a year of transmutation.

As a class, we were to begin our metamorphosis from insecure adolescence to the brink of terrifying adulthood. In retrospect, the transition was not as difficult as we had expected. With the assistance of our teachers and the experience of the student advisors, we survived. As indicated by our Freshmen Formal, our first year at Randolph High School was a success. It was an omen!

Our First Year At Randolph High School Was A Success.

Sophomore Year Was Different. We Felt Confident.

Sophomore year was different. We felt confident. At least, we were no longer Freshmen. That fact, alone, made the year worthwhile. New friendships blossomed, and we began to view the school and its rules from a different perspective. It was less stressful, as we were almost accepted. With the advent of Spring, our thoughts began to turn to Junior Year. We were to become upperclassmen!

Our Junior year was filled with many different emotions. We shall always remember the anxiety we felt before SAT's, as well as the excitement of Santa's Dream and the Junior Prom. This was the year of the driver's license and the college catalogues. The Research Paper nearly did us in. Tragically, this was also the year of Mr. Saba's death.

Our Junior Year Was Filled With Many Different Emotions

THE TOUR

Senior year brought meaning to our high school experience. It all came together. We began by welcoming our new principal, Mrs. Ellen Keane, and we ended with Graduation. During the interim, many classes, activities, and events filled our lives. All of these are recorded in our yearbook. It is an account of our joys, our achievements, and our friendships. It is the Journal of the Senior Year of the Class of 1988.

Senior Year Brought Meaning To Our High School Experience.

Dedication

Mrs. Ellen Keane

We, the graduating class of 1988, proudly dedicate our Oracle to Mrs. Ellen Keane, principal of Randolph High School.

It is our earnest hope that her tenure be successful, and that she be blessed with good health and happiness.

June, 1988

Dear Members of the Class of 1988:

On behalf of the Randolph High School administration and faculty, I am pleased to congratulate you as you graduate and begin the rest of your life.

During the past twelve years, you have become educated individuals with a unique set of skills, knowledge, and goals for the future. You have also developed many relationships and friends who will remain special forever.

Graduation Day is called Commencement because it is considered to be the beginning of your adult life. I wish you success in your chosen field. I hope you will use your education to contribute to humankind, as well as to build a happy, fulfilling and satisfying future.

Sincerely,

Ellen Keane

At least in the beginning, it was a tie for first.

Intense concentration

Moral support from the sidelines

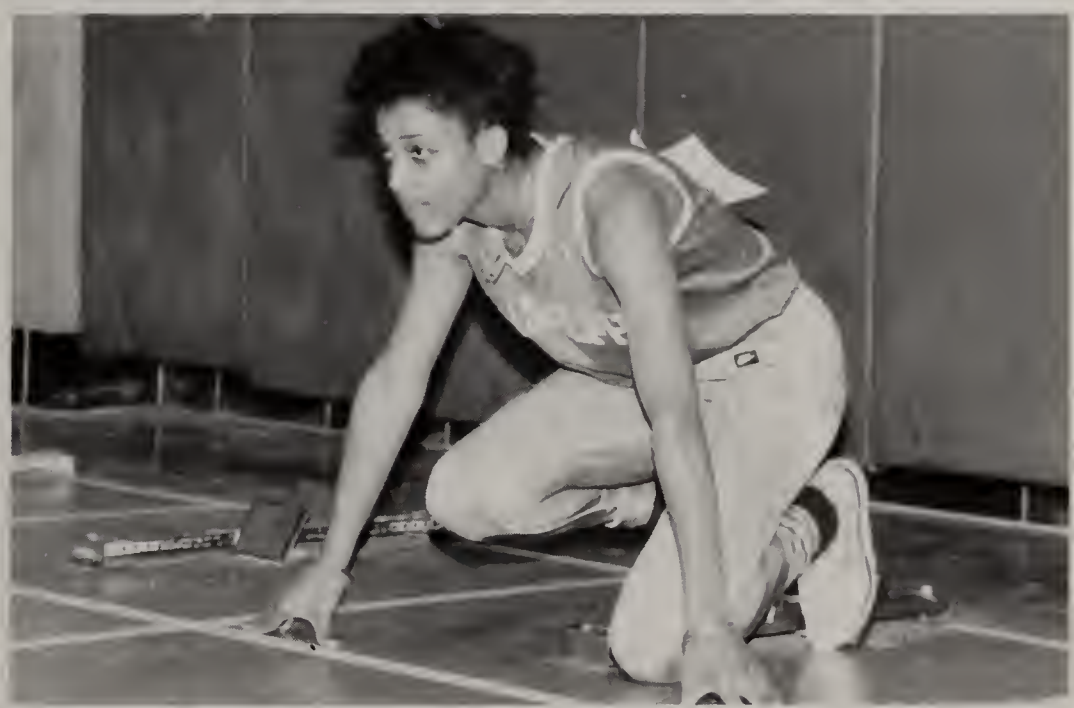
Can't I just throw it underhand?

Sir, may I throw this now?

The agony of defeat?

Closing in on the finish line

Holly maintains the lead.



Eyeing the finish line

Going head over heels?

An over-aggressive WS-er.

Remember: it's mind over matter.

An anxious wait for the starting gun

Getting Into The Holiday Spirit . . .

Show us the smile, Rick!

Come on, guys! Enough relaxing!

Could I borrow your date for this song?

Marc doubling as Lynda's bodyguard.

Caught him by surprise, Amy.

Where did the dance floor go?

Kool-Aid?!?

Santa's Dream '87

Future Mademoiselle cover girls.

Look at those teeth!

OK, Jim, take the straw out now . . .

I propose a toast . . . .

Kurt at a loss for words.

Bet I can make you blink.

Get down!
